“ My condolences and prayers to the Moreno family. I am employed by Oklahoma Department of Transportation and whenever Artemio would come to my office in Duncan, he and I would enjoy many laughs. He was always smiling and happy and spreading love, a true man of God. I've truly missed him since his retirement. Fly high Artemio.....

“ Timmy was a fine example of how much better life is with good neighbors. He and his family were precious to my late grandmother, Josie Hendricks. He was committed to looking out for all and taught his children the same. Thoughts and prayers for Timmy's family and may he rest eternally. Kim (Allgood) Willbanks
