

Bee Eugene Bellamy

November 29, 1918 - February 6, 2013

Bee Eugene Bellamy, 94, of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, was called home by the Lord on Wednesday, February 6, 2013 at the Binger Nursing Home. She was born November 29, 1918 to C. W. and Mary Jane (Harris) Deweese. She was a graduate of Fort Cobb High School. She married the love of her life, John Bellamy on November 30, 1935 in Fort Cobb. They celebrated their 69th Wedding Anniversary prior to his going home to be with the Lord on September 25, 2005. From this union was born three sons and one daughter. Bee's greatest love was for the Lord and her family. She was a devoted wife, and loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. Her happiest times were spent with her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. She enjoyed being a farmer's wife, taking care of the kids, cattle, pigs, cooking, canning, sewing and upholstering. She cooked at Fort Cobb School and taught upholstery at Caddo-Kiowa Technology Center for several years. She enjoyed listening to the kid's and grandkid's sing gospel hymns. She enjoyed watching them play ball and almost never missed a game. She especially enjoyed attending all their many stock shows and watching them compete. Many precious memories were made out on their farm. Bee became a member of the Hopewell Baptist Church at the age of fourteen; she remained a member until 1973. She then moved her membership to First Baptist Church in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma and has been an active member and Prayer Warrior until her last breath. She now has joined her husband, John in their heavenly home with Jesus their Lord and Savior, to live forever more, She is survived by three sons; Larry and Sandra Bellamy, Mike and Elaine Bellamy of Fort Cobb, Lynn and Rhonda Bellamy of Anadarko, one daughter, Pat and Chuck Hardesty of Bridge Creek, Oklahoma, thirteen grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren and twenty seven great-great grandchildren, one brother, Ellis Deweese, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents, C. W. and Mary Jane Deweese, her husband, John Bellamy, one brother, Gillis Deweese and three sisters, Fama Webb, Lottie Weinmeister and Mildred Orrell.
