“ I'm so very sad to hear of this passing of my wonderful great uncle. I only have good memories of him. I'll treasure all of the letters we exchanged through the years and hold those memories of my time with him close at heart. What a sweet man...I'm happy he is no longer in pain and can rest in heaven with my loving great aunt. Love and hugs to the rest of the family as well as prayers for strength.

“ My sincere condolences for your loss. I cannot imagine how difficult this is for you. God has promised that the conditions that we suffer such as sorrow, mourning, pain, and even death will be shortly done away with. (Rev 21:4) We also have God's assurance that "There is going to be a resurrection" (Acts 24:15)
