

Betty Troub

August 13, 1939 - October 18, 2020

Betty Troub, given name Mary Elizabeth Kittley, passed away on October 18, 2020 at age 81 in Carnegie, Oklahoma surrounded by her family and friends. Betty was born on August 13, 1939 in Minco, Oklahoma to Raymond and Marguerite "Teter" Kittley. She graduated from Minco High school in 1957. She met Donald Troub in Oklahoma City in 1958 and they were married March 14, 1959. They made their home in Rogers, Arkansas. In 1959, they moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Don and Betty, along with their three children moved to the "home place" south of Carnegie in 1968. While Don took over the farming operation, Betty took pride in being a stay-at-home mom, raising the kids, maintaining the home, and cooking for the family and farm hands. She also obtained her cosmetology license and practiced and taught cosmetology for a few years. Betty was a firey soul and was lovingly called "Granny Grunt" by her grandchildren. She loved to spend the weekends dancing with Don, heading to Vegas to play the slots (especially with her sister Martha), and spending time in their condo in Port Aransas, fishing and visiting. Granny was a character. She always kept everyone around her laughing. When asked about her last name, she would jokingly say, "the first 5 letters of trouble". She would be sure to let everyone know they were welcome at her "funny farm". She loved supporting her family through attending stock shows, rodeos, ball games, and any other family functions or events. After Don passed away in 2008, her family brought home her Yorkie, Chevy, who lovingly annoyed her and kept her company until her very last breath. While she only had 3 children, 5 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren of her own many would claim Betty as their mom or granny. She loved many and was loved by so many. Betty is survived by: The children and their significant others: Ray Troub and Tonja Challis-Branson, Carnegie, OK Stacy Troub and Thomas Meyer, Yukon, OK Teri and Curtis Stubbs, Mountain View, OK Five Grandchildren: Jennifer (Lindsey) Armstrong, Yukon, OK Candace Stubbs, Yukon, OK Krystal Gayer, Weatherford, OK Casey Troub and his wife, Britany Troub, Carnegie, OK Bailey Troub, Cordell, OK Two Great-Grandchildren Braylon and Abbey Sister: Martha Hurley and husband Hoot, Minco, OK Betty was preceded in death by her husband, Don Troub, her father, Raymond Kittley, her mother, Marguerite "Teter" Kittley, her sister, Barbara McConnell and an infant brother. “ Betty was truly a wonderful woman and neighbor to my parents, brothers and myself. We would gather to have cookouts and my parents enjoyed going dancing and traveled to Reno, Las Vegas, Port Aransas and many other sites. No matter the circumstances, Betty was always a true friend and wonderful neighbor.
