After Jack's passing, Ernestine moved her four young sons to Broxton, Oklahoma where they farmed. When Billy was 12 years old he worked as a sack boy for Ratliff's Grocery Store in Fort Cobb. He played basketball and baseball as a Fort Cobb Longhorn. He received a basketball Scholarship to New Mexico State University. He managed various grocery stores and convenience stores throughout Oklahoma as an adult. He retired when he was 67 years old and lived a simple life in the home his mother purchased when he was 15 years old. Billy is preceded in death by his parents and, brother, Ernest, and sister-in-law Joy Hawkins.
