

Charlie Royce Hall

April 19, 1937 - January 25, 2026

Charlie “Royce” Hall, 88, passed away January 25, 2026, at Shannon Springs nursing home in Chickasha, Oklahoma. He was born on April 19, 1937, to Charlie Eli Hall and Gladys Marie (Bolton) Hall in Verden, Oklahoma. Royce spent his childhood in the Anadarko area, later moved to Guthrie where he spent his teenage years, and moved back to the Anadarko area where he lived most of his adult life.

On April 27, 1956, he married Shirley Faye (Oliver) Hall in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Together they shared 69 years of life and memories.

Royce worked as a truck driver for more than 50 years including 23 years with Western Farmers Electric Cooperative. He was known for his strong work ethic and dedication. His dream was to farm and drive big tractors and combines, and he accomplished that dream by helping Gary farm after he had retired from Western Farmers. And he absolutely loved it! In his free time, he enjoyed going to the coffee shop, traveling to Chama, working on cars, pestering his grandkids, eating cookies, and reading and watching old westerns.

Royce is survived by his loving wife, Shirley Oliver Hall, of the home; his daughter Donna Tumey and Rick, of Yukon; cousin Gary Hall and Lainey, of Anadarko; grandchildren Audrey Green of Harrah; Casey Wells of Cincinnati, OH; Lacy Merchant and Damon, of Chickasha; great-grandchildren Bethany Coppinger and Brice, of Newcastle, Teagan, Logan and Bryson Merchant, of Chickasha; and great-great-grandchildren Copelen and Baker of Newcastle.

He was proceeded in death by his parents; daughters Pamela Faye Lindloff and Deborah Gaye Hall; sister Joyce Keen; brother Ronald Hall, and grandson Eric Graves.
