

Chris Orrin Richardson

May 17, 1962 - July 20, 2018

Chris Orrin Richardson was born May 17, 1962 in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma to Billy and Wilma (Sally) Richardson. Chris was raised in the Cement area where he still lived until his death on Friday, July 20th 2018. Chris married Shelly Kay Camperud on November 13, 1978 and were married just shy of 40 years. Anyone that knew Chris knew he was a hard worker. He started at the early age of 16 working as a mechanic with his dad for a tractor dealer in Chickasha, Oklahoma. He started his career in the oilfield at the young age of 17 where he worked most of his life. When he was not working in the oilfield he was farming. Chris was a third generation farmer and cattleman. He was either farming and raising cattle for others or his own piece of ground. There was not much Chris did not know about a piece of land, a crop, or cattle and he done his best to pass this knowledge onto his children and grandchildren or any other young person that wanted to learn and that was willing to listen. His true love was for his family whom he loved so very much and was loved by so many. Chris is survived by his wife Shelly of the home. Sons; David Richardson, Brandon Richardson, Carlton Richardson, Casey Richardson, and Rhett Richardson all of Cement, Oklahoma; his mother Sally of Cement, Ok, Sisters: Cindie Sales and Husband Nicky of Chickasha; Amanda Harris and Husband Tom of Chickasha, Lora Heilaman and Husband Mike of Apache, and Sarah Jimenez and Husband Guy of Cement; Grandchildren; Kaden and Kody Richardson of Cyril, Ok, Anne, Hannah, and Ashleigh Robertson of Lawton, Ok. Many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his father Billy Richardson and infant son Charlie Orrin Richardson. Funeral services will be held at 9:00 A.M. July 23, 2018 at the Smith Funeral Home in Anadarko, OK. Burial will follow at the Pleasant Hill Union Cemetery, Cement, OK. Condolences may be sent to the family www.smithfuneralservices.com
