

Craig Allen Williams

October 29, 1977 - March 7, 2024

Craig Allen Williams 46, of Kyle, Texas, was called home to Christ on Thursday, March 7, 2024, at Ascension Seton Medical in Austin, Texas. Craig was born October 29, 1977 to Joyce Williams at Carnegie Hospital in Carnegie, Oklahoma.

Craig accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Macedonia Baptist Church in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma. He started school at Fort Cobb and graduated from Chickasha High School. Craig later moved to Norman and Pennsylvania before making his home in Texas with his significant other Heather Carter and his stepson Marcus Jackson.

Craig was an avid sports fan, especially OU football. He enjoyed watching and coaching Marcus in sports and being a father figure. He was a people person and loved music, dancing, and being around family and friends.

Survivors include significant other, Heather Carter of the home, one stepson, Marcus Jackson, mother, Joyce Ligons of Chickasha, uncles Ronnie Williams of Fort Cobb and Jimmy Williams of a Carnegie.

The family of Craig Williams wishes to express our sincere thanks for the outpouring of love that has been demonstrated by your prayers, visits, flowers, cards, phone calls, and other acts of kindness during our time of loss.

Visitation for Craig is set to be held from 9 AM to 8 PM on Friday, March 15, 2024, at the Fort Cobb Funeral Home Chapel.

A funeral service to honor the life of Craig is set to begin at 11 AM on Saturday, March 16, 2024, at the Fort Cobb First Baptist Church. He will be laid to rest at Oak Grove Cemetery in Fort Cobb following the service.

Services are under the direction of Fort Cobb Funeral Home in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma.

“ Craig was a sweet guy with a great, big heart and a great sense of humor. I loved how much he loved and supported Heather and Marcus. I was touched by the love and respect he always showed for his mother, Joyce. He will be missed so much.
