“ I miss you so much grandpa. Like you can't even imagine how much I love you. You're amazing. And I'll never forget when you tried to teach me and Jaeleene to play the guitar and I'll never forget when we'd sit in your room and watch movies and listen to you sing. When you were in the hospital the last time before you passed...I had the chance to tell you how much I'll miss you and how much I love you and that I'll never forget you. But I hesitated and I didn't. I'll always hate myself for that. But I love you and I'll never forget you grandpa.

Much love.

“ You felt so lonely and sad. I bet you never realized how much you were loved, considered a sweet person and great friend, and how much you are missed. Now that bad memories are gone, you and Linda are together, time for happiness, my friend.
