Darren was born on August 30th, 2010 in Yukon, Oklahoma to Lance and Michelle Goucher. In his short life he made many friends, and learning how to make many more. Darren was one of the kindest and sweetest little guys, funny, so full of life and love. Darren enjoyed going fishing (hoping to always catch the BIG ONE). Being on a farm he of course had to always go check on his cattle, and not knowing what sort of varmints were around he was learning how to safely shoot guns. His real fun came when he played BASEBALL, his team the "BOBCATS" a T-Ball team was always exciting. You need to understand that Darren liked his trains and John Deere tractors, you can't move nothin on a farm unless you have a tractor, and the best way to ship things is by train. He enjoyed his many cousins, as they would often play together. While going to The Lost Cowboy Church he would often slip off and listen to The Lost Cowboy Band practice their music.
