

David Lynn Chaddlesone

May 8, 1960 - November 14, 2022

David Lynn Chaddlesone, 62 years of age, of Anadarko, Oklahoma departed this life in the early hours of November 14, 2022 at Inspire Specialty Hospital in midwest City, Oklahoma. David, born on May 8, 1960 at the Indian Hospital in Lawton, Oklahoma was the 6th of 7 children all born to their mother, Alice "Cherry" Toppah Chaddlesone and father, John Wesley Chaddlesone. David grew up and went to elementary and junior high school in Lawton and Carnegie, Oklahoma. He attended high school at Riverside Indian School and graduated with the class of 1978. David had several nicknames throughout his life. His first name, "Dancing Bear", was given to him while he was a student at Riverside. He liked to dance and it was said all the girls knew who to call to the dance floor and David would oblige. He was large of stature so you can picture why he got this nickname. David and his cousin, Paul McDaniels Jr. were teasing and terrorizing each other one day. as they liked to do. At that particular time "Mad Cow" disease was the topic of the day. David told Jr. when he walked his legs shook like them cows that had mad cow disease. Jr. shot back that David's name was "Daisy Mad Cow" and it was so funny it stuck. A certain faction of his friends would tease him and call him by that name. Another teasing and terrorizing nickname he was known by was "Uncle Krunkie" which was bestowed on him by his nephew and certain family members called him by this nickname. David was a unique person and had a big personality. He lived in many different places throughout his lifetime and made friends everywhere he went. If he met a stranger, they didn't stay

"strange' for long as he would find some commonality to start a conversation. More likely it would be that he would just start making funny comments and then a rapport was formed because of course, we all like to laugh and David made us all laugh. David's sense of humor and friendliness created many friendships with people both young and old, and of different genders, native nations and all races. David had a kind heart and was empathetic to people's suffering. He spent many hours as a live-in "nurse" for different people to help take care of them and their families. In this role, he cooked meals, kept the home clean, attended to emergencies and brought good cheer to those in need of support. David was an accomplished beadworker and produced numerous pieces of jewelry, regalia, and important cultural pieces which are owned by people nationwide. David put a lot of thought into his designs and worked hard to meet requests. He was a fast beader so once he had everything designed he could quickly turn around an order right then and this was a much appreciated skill of his. David loved to cook, especially native food. He liked posting foodie pictures on facebook. David also became an expert meat pie maker and he would have an occasional food sale if he needed some financial help. His food was always in demand and sold out quick. David was very proud to be a member of the Kiowa Tribe. He loved taking pictures of family and friends. He held an office with the Riverside Alumni Association. He loved all types of music but had a special affinity for old school and classic R&B music. He loved attending music concerts in his younger days. Throughout his life he loved going to pow wows, 49's and other native celebrations and ceremonials. David loved the "little ones" and loved teasing them and rewarding them with whatever he had available be it food, candy or money. “ I have known David for a very long time. I lived in Denver one time and got invited to go camping in the Netherlands. Loved it! Everyone that was there had a blast! Mary, Charlie, Lily, Betty, slugger, n some other s were there to enjoy the camping trip. Well needless to say it was an interesting night. But... The next morning I woke up n there standing on a milk carton, wrapped in a Pendleton stood David! In the middle of camp singing the Kiowa flag song! He was singing loud n proud! I laughed at this site, but it was not because it was funny, but because only David would do such a thing like that in the middle of nowhere in the mountains of Colorado! There is a lot more to this story. Just ask one of us n we can tell you all about that weekend. I have a few more memories of him. The last time I hung out with him was at the Comanche fair. We drove out to just enjoy the 49. The singing was crazy n we just laughed at those guys trying to sing the same songs all night. lol good times good memories. He always called me sister girl n I always called him brother! I will definitely miss our convos on messenger and in person. I'm gonna miss seeing him sit in his spot at ndn city looking on at the tone Kone gah black leggings ceremony. Love you David! May god bless the family always. Hugs n prayers to all.

“ "David was an accomplished beadworker and produced numerous pieces of jewelry, regalia, and important cultural pieces which are owned by people nationwide. " - I need to add on to this. In 2019, I went to Bangalore, India to meet my new co-workers and boss. I asked David to bead me 4 lanyards to present to my co-workers and boss. I did present these lanyards to them and now they are in 3 different countries, France, China and India so his beadwork is now known WORLDWIDE... RIP David.. you will be missed...

“ Well David can't believe you up and left us, I will always think of you often and remember the good times and laughs. Remembering those yahoo chat room days where me and Marilyn had our unique Kiowa names and kiowanized was trying hard to figure who we were lol, and here you come along and was helping kiowanized figure out who were where , idk how you did it cause me and Marilyn wasn't giving any clues and those get togethers at the soft ball fields by Randlett, our run in visits at Walmart . We never had our cook-off but it can wait. I know your cooking up a feast right about now. You are such a good person, friend David, tell everyone hello from down here. You touched alot of people with your faith, your good heart and I know you received your reward and the beautiful room God has prepared for you. Love you David ....
