

David Lee Parks

October 30, 1969 - February 17, 2026

David was born on October 30, 1969, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to Floyd Dean Parks and Marilyn Rose Parks (Lankister). He lived most of his life in Cement and was a member of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Cement. On November 26, 1988, David married the love of his life, Victoria Kay Parks (Lee), at the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Cement. They shared many years together and built a family rooted in love and laughter.

David worked the majority of his life in the oilfield as a dedicated derrick hand. He completed some college and was known for his strong work ethic.

David was an incredibly big-hearted guy he cared deeply for his family and was a very kind and generous man. His passion was art and liked drawing. He loved to read, especially horror novels. His favorite was Stephen King. He was a highly intelligent man. Anyone could come to him for advice or knowledge to be gained. He loved to sing and was so good at it. He could sing any genre perfectly. David sang often in his younger days at church. He had a vibrant personality and was often remembered as the “class clown,” always ready to make others laugh. David loved horror movies, 80s music, especially Ozzy Osbourne, and was a devoted Star Wars fan.

He is survived by his wife, Victoria Parks; his children, Rebecca Roberts and Brandon Parks; his sisters, Teresa and Pam; and his grandchildren, Destinee Fetterly, Jayden Fetterly, and Blaine Parks.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Floyd Dean Parks and Marilyn Rose Parks (Lankister)

David will be remembered for his humor, his love of family, and the joy he brought to those around him.
