“ *My dear Niece,
It hurts me so bad that I can't be there but I want you to know how much you are loved and that you are part of a big, loving family. I have wonderful Imemories of you growing up and know you were a happy, loving woman.*

*Love you so much,
Your Aunt Robin*

“ *Dacey May, you were very much in my heart today, even though I couldn't be there in Anadarko.. You won't remember this, but I once baby sat for you and David Wayne, when you were not yet one year old. I even managed to change your diaper!
I didn't see nearly enough of you over the years, but I always liked your bubbly personality and sense of fun. I am sure you will lighten up everyone, wherever the Lord has put his arms around you, I'll be seeing you, sweet Dacey, God bless.*

“ Dear Dicey:

My first niece, and you will always be in my memories and my heart as a sweet little Indian girl living at 15th and McKinley in Oklahoma City, you and your bro David Wayne. I have tears in my eyes right now because your passing has been so sad, but those tears won't be there for long because the memories of the real and true and one and only Dicey Mae will come back and will stay for good. Rest in peace, Diana Louise, and please know that all of us in the Geiogamah family loved you very much and will always honor your memory. You were a special person. Aho

Your uncle, Henry L. Geiogamah, aka Hanay Geiogamah

“ Dear Diana, I often tried looking for you after our last time meeting in Lawton by complete coincidence. I loved your smile and you brought me brief and lasting joy with memories burned forever in my heart and soul. Those times we shared from that very intense first meeting at the Log Cabin, to nights of grand and meaningful time spent in our own company. I was very grieved to find this out always holding out my fervent hope to meet you again.

To family, my deepest condolences and wishes for all good. I will always remember this pretty girl with great affection and a smiling heart.
