“ Donnie, Bebo and I started what is most precious to us today, our family.

We were kids and we had babies! We did it together, figuring it out, , minute by minute.....yes were we too young, we thought we knew it all, the cards were not in our favor.....but check out our children now, we did something right!

Living proof, all ya need is love. We loved and grew with our first born which made them the special people they are today.

After all drama, not one of us would change a thing,

Another life's lesson, reach out to special people in your past and let them know how they touched your life. I take comfort in believing in heaven above, seeing Donnie's smile, acknowledging how he touched my life.
