

Edna Francis Hodges

July 16, 1918 - May 2, 2012

Edna Francis Tramel Hodges, 93 was called to her Heavenly Home on Wednesday, May 2, 2012 by her Lord and Savior with her family by her side. She was born on July 16, 1918, was the eldest of ten children, to James Carroll and Edna Rae (Jackson) Tramel on the old home place south east of Fort Cobb, OK. She was a graduate of Washita High School in the class of 1936. She married her high school sweetheart, Marvin Curtis Hodges on her twentieth birthday, July 16, 1938 at the First Baptist Church parsonage in Fort Cobb. From this union three wonderful children were born and they raised her baby sister as one of their own. In 1939, Edna was saved, baptized and joined the First Baptist Church in Fort Cobb. She taught Sunday school, was the church clerk and held several other positions in the church. She supported her church through attendance, prayer and the giving of tithes and offerings throughout her seventy three years of membership. Her greatest loves were the Lord and her family. She enjoyed reading God's word, sewing, needlework, ceramics, painting and crocheting. Her passion in later years were crocheting and sewing baby receiving blankets for the Pregnancy Support Center and DHS in Anadarko. She especially loved her grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren and all the precious moments spent with each of them. She was a loving and devoted mother, "Nana", sister and friend. She was an active member of the Crescent Home Extension Club and the Order of Eastern Star for fifty plus years. Edna leaves a wonderful legacy for her family and many friends. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.
