

Emma Gina Autaubo

December 13, 1936 - March 6, 2020

Emma Gina Autaubo, 83, from Oklahoma City entered into Heaven after a brief and sudden illness on Friday, March 6, 2020 surrounded by her loving family. Emma was born on December 13, 1936 in Lawton, OK to Betty Taua Haumpo. She attended and graduated from Riverside Indian School in 1956. She married Frederick Autaubo on November 15, 1961 in Oklahoma City. She was a CHR for the Kiowa Tribe where she became the CHR Director and then became the CHR Director for the Caddo Tribe. Emma was also a certified EMT and taught CPR at various locations in Caddo County. She loved doing bead work and created numerous necklaces and earrings for her loved ones, especially her granddaughters. She enjoyed working on crossword puzzles and was an avid reader, finishing her last book while in the hospital. Emma loved to cook for her family and everyone loved her fry bread.....and her goulash. She loved watching western's and Law & Order SVU. Emma enjoyed listening to all kinds of music, specifically Jimmy Reed, and was a fan of old time Gospel, Stevie Ray Vaughn and Dwight Yoakum. Emma was a stout believer in Jesus Christ Our Savior and God our Father. She told each one of us that we know where she will be if we want to see her again. She is survived by: Four sons: Wardell, Martin and wife Nicole, Randy and wife Dolores, Everett and wife Libby, all of Oklahoma City. Her daughter Elona Autaubo and companion, Ellery Headrick, of Oklahoma City, OK Grandchildren: Kelli Kaubin and companion Rocky Rivas, Betti Autaubo & companion Mike, Gail Autaubo & companion Felipe, Daniel Autaubo, Aaron Autaubo, Josiah

“ To u my sister Emma Autaubo. I have a lot of memories of our time together. We were happy just to be together and spend time. Even if we didn't say nothing at all, we were happy. I already miss u and it hasn't even been long since u left. I can still hear ur voice. Our heavenly family is happy now.
