

Ethel M. Pugh

September 11, 1917 - August 31, 2015

Ethel M. Pugh, 97, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, passed from this life on Monday, August 31, 2015 in Moore, Oklahoma. Ethel was born September 11, 1917 in Apache, Oklahoma to William M. and Clara (Reiss) McMahan. Ethel enjoyed gardening but said the hardest part of it was weeding it out. She liked to drive but she drove like she had just stolen the car. You better hang on and hope for the best with her, although she was a joy to be with and around. She was a member of the Eastern Star, 1st Christian Church of Anadarko, where she was very active in helping with luncheons and dinners, playing bridge with a bridge group, an active member of the Y in Oklahoma City until 1995 and was also an artist, who enjoyed painting. Left to cherish her memory is her daughter, Ann Carroll of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; 2 grandchildren: Chris Pugh of Oklahoma City and Charles Oxlade of Texarkana, Texas; 1 great grandson, Micah Oxlade of Oklahoma City and 2 great granddaughters: Rebeca Pugh and Morgan Pugh of Oklahoma City. One sister Mildred Weber Ethel is preceded in death by her parents. Graveside services will be at 11:00 A.M., Friday, September 4, 2015 at Memory Lane Cemetery in Anadarko. Rev. Richard Cox will officiate. Services are under the direction of Smith Funeral Home, Anadarko, Oklahoma. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.smithfuneralservices.com

“ We would like to offer our condolences to the Family, from Luis, Patricia, Cecily, and Luis Jr. Ethel was a Saint, a wonderful neighbor for 13 years. My family and I were blessed to have known her also as a friend to visit almost daily, with her discussing different subjects while always losing track of time. She was very enjoyable to be around. She will be missed. We will miss you, Sincerely Luis.
