Only now did I become aware of Eva's death. I was the manager of Gallenkamp Shoes in the Finneytown Shopping Center on Winton Road in Cincinnati, Ohio around 1975. Eva used to visit the shoe store frequently with her friends to say hello. I was much older, about 23 and Eva about 13, but I could see that Eva was going to grow up to be a delightful young lady. She was a very pleasant, bright-eyed young lady, and very smart. I wish Eva's family all the best. Eva was a gem.
