“ I can't be at your last farewell, We have so many memories, my heart is breaking, we did a lot of silly things, but one of my favorite was just sitting on the porch and you singing Moma Tried, and of course Picture, When we went to Vegas to the Little White Chapel but they were busy, so we went and ate, then was to full to go back 😭, I often wonder if things would have been different, but then I'm sure the whisky still would have won, OMG I can't say goodbye, so my love see you when I get there, yeah I'll bring strawberry ice cream

“ Gary was always the quiet, gentle one. He never said words that would hurt one's feelings. I remember him as a sweet, kind cousin. My heart is sad to know that is gone from our family 🙏

“ I am so sorry to hear Gary is gone, he will be missed. I have been retired and moved to OKC for some years now, but my best memories with Gary were when I cooked fried chicken for him and my brother Steve. We had many good times. Prayers for his family.
