“ My sincere condolences for your loss. Please take hope in the message God gives us at John 5:28, 29 which says "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..."

“ This is one of the best men I've ever known. I got to spend a whole summer with him which taught me so many different good things. Spent many nights at his house when I growing up. Too all the family, I love you all. Gerald, I love you and we'll meet again. J.J.
