

Geraldine Torralba

March 7, 1922 - January 6, 2021

Geraldine Davilla Torralba, born March 7, 1922, passed away in Binger, Oklahoma on January 6, 2021. Born in Ft. Cobb, Oklahoma, she was the daughter of John Davilla and Frances Valdez Davilla. Geraldine married Jesse (Jake) Torralba in Denver, Colorado, July 31, 1943. After living in Denver and Ft. Worth, Texas, they eventually settled in Lawton. Geraldine and Jake shared sixty-five years together until his passing in 2008. Geraldine attended Anadarko High School. Her first job was as a clerk in a local department store. She continued working in retail in Anadarko and Lawton and loved selling Avon. She enjoyed working alongside her husband, after he retired, selling and trading Native American jewelry. They traveled across the Southwest selling at powwows and fairs from Arizona to Arkansas. Geraldine is well-remembered for her generosity and kind heart. She is also remembered for being a hard worker and for handling adversity. Geraldine had a long life and witnessed many events and changes in the world. She was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Anadarko and a long-term member of the Latin American Club in Lawton. Family was her priority throughout her life. She loved her children, grandchildren, and great-children. She is survived by her son, Richard Dale Torralba of Auburn, Washington, and her daughter, Barbara Torralba Hobson of Norman, Oklahoma; grandchildren Trevor Torralba and his wife Kortni of Norman; Maya Torralba and her husband Brian Daffron of Norman. She is also survived by great-grandchildren Jessica Reed, Chado Daffron, Kateri Daffron, Matthias Daffron, and Frankie Daffron, Setde Torralba, and Tedan Torralba. She is survived by great-great-grandchildren Brooklynne Sweeden, Braxton Taylor and Marilynne Taylor. As well, she is survived by her sisters-in-law, Josephine Torralba Guerrero, Shirley Davilla, and Marcia Davilla. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Jesse Torralba, grandson Terry Dale Torralba, granddaughter Suzanne Torralba Youngblood, granddaughter Amanda Hobson, and great-grandson Devin Reed. Geraldine is also survived by many nieces and nephews. The family wishes to thank the staff of Binger Nursing Home and Russell Murray Hospice for their care of our loved one. Services will be Monday, January 11, 2021 at 10:00 A.M. at St. Patrick's Church with Father Carl Janocha officiating. Burial will follow at Memory Lane Cemetery. Visitation will be Saturday and Sunday, 1:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. The family asks that guests wear a face mask and social distance. Services under the direction of Smith Funeral Home, Anadarko, OK. “ I HEARD YOUR VOICE IN THE WIND TODAY From "Walking the Red Road" I heard your voice in the wind today as I turned to see your face; The warmth of the wind caressed me as I stood silently in place. I felt your touch in the sun today as its warmth filled the sky; I closed my eyes for your warm embrace And my spirit soared high. I saw your eyes in the window pane as I watched the falling rain; It seemed as each raindrop fell It quietly said your name. I held you close in my heart today It made me feel complete; You may have died... but you are not gone You will always be a part of me. As long as the sun shines... The wind blows... The rain falls... You will live on inside of me forever for that is all my heart knows. Author Unknown
