

Glen Courtney

May 9, 1948 - November 10, 2022

Glen Jess Courtney was born in Elk City, Ok on May 9, 1948 to Jess and Goldia (Borchert) Courtney. His father, Jess was transferred from Elk City to the PSO Washita Power Plant in 1956. He attended Fort Cobb Schools where he graduated in 1966. He started his love for being a mechanic when he started working for area farmers when he was 14. He was drafted in September 1967 where he was a Tank Mechanic during the Vietnam War. When he returned from the service in 1969, worked as a mechanic at AAMCO Transmissions in Oklahoma City, Ok. He returned to Fort Cobb and was employed by Jarrett Walker. During this time, he met and married the love of his life, Phyllis Rae Sink on January 21, 1972. After they married, he started selling Insurance. In 1974 they moved to Iowa Park, Texas where he was employed by Glen Tole John Deere Equipment. They returned home to Fort Cobb in June of 1975. He started working at Anadarko Farm Center. He worked for John Deere for over 20 years. He worked at Optiz for several years before he went out on his own. He opened Courtney's Tractor Repair June of 1998 until June of 2010 when he decided to retire. Although he was retired, he answered numerous phone calls, house visits or stops on the street about how to repair tractors. He loved to read about History. He was known to always have a book in his hand that was either about history or tractors. He loved spending his time talking about how to make cars to go fast, tractor pulling and fixing tractors. He also loved to play cards with family and friends. He was very competitive and did not like it when those girls beat them. He loved his family and worked hard to provide for them. He loved spending time with his family and ensuring that they always had enough to eat. He was preceded in death by his parents, a son, Mark Courtney, a brother and sister in-law, George Courtney and his wife Geraldine, Mother-in-law and Father-in-law, Goldie and Ray Sink, sister-in-law and brother-in-law Bettie and Donnie Galindo Survivors include his wife, Phyllis, of the home; two children, his son Clint and wife, Jamie Courtney of Fort Cobb, daughter Wendy and husband Landon Clift, of Fort Cobb. Four grandchildren, Ty Courtney and fianc , Taylor Schwab of Fort Cobb, Cody Courtney of Fort Cobb, Kyanna and husband Rhett Tripp and Makyah Clift, all of Blair, Ok. One great grandchild, Radley Rae Tripp of Blair, OK, brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Jonell Courtney of Fort Cobb, Ok sister and brother-in-law, Charlette and Richard Williams of Anadarko, Ok and numerous nieces and nephews. Visitation will be Saturday, 9:00-8:00, Sunday, 1:00 - 6:00, Monday and Tuesday, 9:00-8:00 and Wednesday, 9:00-1:00. Family will greet friends on Tuesday from 6:00-8:00. Funeral services will be at 2:00 P.M., Wednesday, November 16, 2022 at the Oak Grove Cemetery in Fort Cobb. Rev. Lynn Bellamy will officiate. Services are under the direction of Fort Cobb Funeral Home. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.smithfuneralservices.com

Tribute Wall

EW

“ Sorry for your loss. I knew Glen and Bill years ago when I was a child. My dad was John White .We lived on a farm north of Fort Cobb. Dad drilled water Wells. My sincere condolences Everett White

Everett White - November 13, 2022 at 12:00 AM

BR

“ Rest In Peace My Friend! You Deserve It! Your Friendship and our visits in the John Deere shop always encouraged and helped me. My Love and Prayers go out to your Precious Family.

Bill Reedy - November 13, 2022 at 12:00 AM

CM

“ A tractor man gone. Blessings to the family. Carson and Deon

Carson Miller - November 13, 2022 at 12:00 AM