

Gregory Allen Iams

August 11, 1964 - December 7, 2018

Gregory Allen Iams was the first born son to Everett and Janice Iams, in Anadarko, Oklahoma on August 11th, 1964. He was unexpectedly called home to the Lord on Friday, December 7th, 2018. He grew up with one older sister, Lori (Iams) Neuwirth, one younger sister; Lisa (Iams) Vance and a baby brother Brad Iams. He went on to marry the love of his life Donna Kaye Marsh and have four loving children of his own: Metra Mechelle (Iams) Wann and Matt Wann; Chance Allen Iams and Sally Tilley; Steven Kason Iams and Maxine (Kestler) Iams and Kaysie Joe Iams. He was also blessed with six beautiful grandchildren; Caleb and Keagan Wann, Archer and Foster Iams and Kason and Natalie Iams. Greg started school at Washita but graduated from Fort Cobb in 1982. He was a hard worker from early on and his first job was a paper route. He owned and operated Iams Woodworks where he built beautiful custom cabinetry. He was a passionate loving husband; and a fun, caring, teaching father and grandfather. He lived in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma for most of his life. He loved the outdoors where he felt closest to God. His passions were hunting and spending time with family. He will be greatly missed by all who love him. He was preceded in death by his father Everett Allen Iams and two brothers-in-law; Jerry Neuwirth and Kendell Tyler. “ To the Iams family,
It was so sad to see an old friend has passed. I went to school with Lori and Greg at Washita. Lori and me became friends and spent lots of time together. I haven't seen the family in a very long time.
Wanted to send my deepest sympathies to each one of you. May God give you all comfort at this time.
