

Hazel Louise Holland

February 1, 1930 - January 7, 2012

Hazel "Louise" Holland, 82 of Oney, Oklahoma departed this life on Saturday, January 7, 2012 at Physicians Hospital in Anadarko, Oklahoma. She was born February 1, 1930 to J. D. and Evola (Jackson) McDonald in Lamar, Oklahoma. She also attended school at Lamar. She was united in marriage to Walter Rodgers, from this union was born three children, he preceded her in death. Louise enjoyed crocheting, sewing, canning and working out side. Louise loved her family. and was mom to many. She always welcomed any visitor. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. She is survived by three sons, Gene Rodgers of Moore, OK, Harold Rodgers and wife, Joann, Christopher Holland and wife, Jenn of Mustang, OK, one daughter, Paula (Roberts) Wood and husband Wendell of Fort Cobb, OK, six grandchildren, Justin, Brandon, Alex, Harold, Stephanie, Brad and Amanda, Fifteen great grandchildren. three brothers, John Henry McDonald, Sammy McDonald and David McDonald, two sisters, Florene Hatton and Bonnie McDonald. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Walter Rodgers, one daughter, Laura Hurst, one son, Edward Whish Graveside service is 2:00 P. M.. Wednesday, January 11, 2012 at the Oney Cemetery , officiating is, Brother Steve Palzynsky, services are under the direction of the Fort Cobb Funeral Home, Fort Cobb, Oklahoma