“Dickie Hunter, Henry's dad, always said he was my birthday present, as we shared the same birthdate December 16, 1948 & 1982. Henry was buried on Dickie's birthday, February 14th. Henry's life was short. I wanted him to have a happy life. I love to see my kids happy and laughing. Can't understand why he was taken away in a brutal way by cops who are suppose to serve and protect. God and Jesus, I am looking to you for why he had to leave us this way. Other people want to know why too. Someone told me something good will come out of this. I pray it does. Meanwhile, my heart is confused and broken.”

“Blessings, prayers, and sympathy to Phyllis and Richard in this time of your great loss. I am so very sorry for your loss, pain, and suffering. May God help you thru this hard time, and help you deal with your loss. I know it is overwhelming and such a great loss to deal with. Please know I care an am thinking and praying for u both. I can't think of anything harder to deal with. Richard please let me know if I can help you. I am so very sorry. God help u both. U have dealt with so much lately. There has got to be a bright light at the end of this tunnel. Please hang on to that and don't give up. God will see you thru it. Please know we care. Keep going Richard, for Jeff, too. U can do it. Stay strong. All my prayers, love, and sympathy, to Phyllis and Richard. Sharon Keechi Ahpeahtone and Edwin Ahpeahtone Jr, OKC, OK. Luv u Richard!”
