

Jammie Lloyd Lucus

August 13, 1934 - April 2, 2013

Jammie Lloyd Lucus, 78, of Oklahoma City, passed away April 2, 2013. He was born August 13, 1934 to T.L. and Clara Lucus in Indianahoma, Oklahoma. Jammie graduated from Alfalfa High School. He was drafted into the U.S. Army and worked as a mechanic on helicopters while in Germany. He also served in the Korean War. Jammie farmed for several years and then met Clora Murphy and they were united in marriage on November 25, 1961 in Alfalfa, Oklahoma. He then farmed for several more years before he began construction work and helped build many bridges in Caddo County. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping and being outdoors. His greatest love was for his family. Jammie is survived by his four children; Steven Lucus, Jammie Faron Lucus and wife Angela, Treva Jo Fisher and husband Johnny, and Sharil Jean McCoy. He is also survived by his grandchildren; Miranda Hood, Jeremiah Fisher and wife Sarah, Brandie North and husband Carl, Joshua McCoy and wife Melissa, Jonathan McCoy, Justin McCoy, Cassidy Lucus, Braxton and wife, Katie Lucus and Grady Lucus and 14 great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his wife Clora, his parents T.L. and Clara Lucus, two brothers, Don and Shorty Lucus and a sister, Anna Lou Stephenson. A graveside service will be held Saturday, April 6, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. at the Alfalfa Cemetery, Alfalfa, Oklahoma. Services are under the direction of Fort Cobb Funeral Home, Fort Cobb, Oklahoma.