

Jerry Lee Clark

April 7, 1949 - October 12, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

HU

“ I remember the time Uncle Jerry beheaded a chicken when they lived at Grand Lake (I was probably 7). Scared the living daylights out of me. Didn't eat chicken again until I was 27!! He was always telling jokes. I remember when he was accidentally shot by his very elderly friend and paralyzed...no one thought he would make it but my mom & dad every night would slide under his bed (the staff turned him) and hand feed him Lot-A-Burger hamburgers for 6 months. He eventually defied doctors and walked again. Lots of things I think his family have forgotten but I remember. His family lived with us for at least a year and my parents lost their first house because of it but my parents never did anything but extend help to all the siblings and family. I know God knows sees all they have done out of the goodness of their hearts even if my mothers family have treated her badly over the years. I have sat and observed and take note. I'm sure Jerry on his deathbed was sorry for any bad things he had said.

---

Hudgens - August 25, 2025 at 08:05 PM

SF

“ Our deepest sympathies in your loss.

---

Summers family - August 29, 2016 at 12:00 AM