

Johnny Cozad

November 5, 1949 - December 17, 2022

Johnny Lee Cozad was called home by the Lord on Saturday, December 17, 2022 while in the hospital at OU Medical Center in Oklahoma City. He was born November 5, 1949 in Lawton, Oklahoma to Everette and Olynthia (Pipestem) Cozad. Johnny grew up in Carnegie, Oklahoma. He attended Riverside Indian School and Ft. Sill Indian School. He played football in school and he loved to play the drums in his youth. Johnny was a firefighter for the Wichita tribes. He fought fires in Beaver Ridge, Montana and the outskirts of the Glacier Mountains. He lived his last days of his life in McLoud. He loved his family dearly and especially his grandkids and great grandkids. He also loved being around his favorite nieces and nephews. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends. Left to cherish his memory are his kids: Carolyn Lonewolf of Lawton, Karen Noel of Indianahoma, Anastasia Cozad and significant other, Bobby Green of McLoud; sister, Carol Kodaseet of Anadarko; brothers: Adrian Cozad of Anadarko and Everett Cozad Jr of Oklahoma City; 7 grandkids along with several other relatives and friends. Johnny is preceded in death by his parents and sister, Beverly Cozad. Funeral services will be at 11:00 A.M., Wednesday, December 21, 2022 at the Smith Funeral Home Chapel in Anadarko. Kathy Pewenofkit and Ryan Noel will officiate. Burial will follow in the Memory Lane Cemetery in Anadarko. Services are under the direction of Smith Funeral Home, Anadarko, Oklahoma. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.smithfuneralservices.com

Tribute Wall

“ 5 files added to the album Obituary Wall ”

Smith Funeral Home & Fort Cobb Funeral Home - April 09, 2024 at 04:19 PM