“ I am papa's granddaughter. I am currently 11 years old and I want to share a memory I had with him. So, this one day I was bored because my grandma and mom were cooking, so I went to my papa and asked if I could do his makeup, and he said yes, so I did his makeup, took a picture, showed my dad, then continued on with the day. Thank you for caring for my papa. :)

“ Some of the most fun times with Jonesy was racing from Okc to Gracemont or the other direction...and seeing who could take the curves the fastest!! Sneaking in the back way to avoid the smokies and jumping the hills like The Dukes of Hazzard. Stevie my double blood cousin, I love you like a brother and I miss you. Oh yeah, let's not forget the ski trip when you came down the mountain doing about 60 mph with eyes bigger than silver dollars, almost taking me out with you!! Finally doing the splits and going down hard!! I picked up the pieces and we went for a Hot Tottie. But my most precious memory is when we knelt down at the bumper of an old car at 44th and Robinson and you gave your heart to Jesus, praise the Lord for His mercy. Love to the Family. Love from Chuck Jones and Family
