“ Truly a wonderful woman, all who were blessed to meet her would agree wholeheartedly. She was not my grandmother nor were we related technically, but she was my brother's great-grandmother and perhaps the person he loved most outside of his immediate family. My brother David will be happy to have his favorite grandparent in heaven with him. From my own personal experiences, she allowed me to use her car to get my driver's license, how many people would do that for someone who's not even family? This wonderful woman would. May God continue to bless her family, and thank you all for allowing her to be a part of our lives. She will truly be missed. God Bless you!
