

Justin Ross Boyer

December 27, 1989 - March 7, 2019

Justin Ross Boyer was born in Chickasha, OK on December 27, 1989 to Roy and Terrie (Ross) Boyer. He was raised in Verden, OK his entire life where he attended Verden School. He was involved in every extracurricular activity that was offered. He is remembered as an outstanding athlete and student. A teacher and coach's favorite because of his dedication, leadership, and work ethic. He went on to play baseball at Redland's Community College and then finished his college education at OSU-IT. After graduation, Justin started his career at AEP-PSO where he was an equipment operator. He was passionate about his job and like everything else, wanted to be the best he could be out at the plant. His coworkers said he was a man like nobody else; always picking on someone; wanting to learn new things; and a man of Faith. He was a member of the 1st Baptist Church of Verden. The light of Christ radiated through Justin everywhere he went. Every opportunity that was presented, he spent his time sharing his love and his faith. It was obvious and apparent that Justin lived to serve the Lord. Throughout the hardest time of his life, he remained steadfast and secure with his Hope in Jesus. Justin made the statement that through his suffering if only one person came to know Christ, then this would all be worth it. His prayer was that God would use him, and He did just that. Justin married Whitney Sanders on May 2, 2015. The two were blessed with three beautiful children: Kanon, Karter, and Camille. His most prized possession on this earth was his family. It was the simple things that meant the most to him. He commented daily on how blessed he was " never taking a moment for granted. He was a devoted husband who spent his years making sure Whitney knew how much she was loved and adored. He was the absolute best father who was involved in every detail of his kids' lives. Justin was the true definition of a Godly man in and out of the home. Everything he did was to point his family to Jesus. If Justin could leave us all a message, it would go something like this, "Although the battle has been lost, the victory was already won. Seek Jesus with all your heart; love your family to no end; breathe in the fresh air and soak in the scenery; and enjoy life. Sweetheart, I'm okay. Mom and Dad, I'm okay. Everyone, I'm okay. I love you all and I will see you all soon." Left to cherish his memory is his wife, Whitney Boyer of the home; children: Kanon Wade, Karter Boyer and Camille Boyer of the home; parents: Roy and Terrie Boyer of Verden; brothers: James and Brittini Boyer of Chickasha, Jared Boyer of Verden; grandparents: Leota Boyer, Roy & Jean Ross, Donna & Dan Jordan; in-laws, Brett and Robbin Sanders, Patrice and Mike Dolch; brother and sisters-in-law: Jake Dolch, Luke Dolch, Emily and Jeremy Mooney, Chance and Amanda Sanders, Bretlin Sanders, Cale and Kyndall Dolch; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Justin is preceded in death by his grandfathers: Coy Boyer and Joe Chisholm Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M., Thursday, March 14, 2019 at the Verden Gymnasium in Verden, Oklahoma. Burial will follow in the Verden Cemetery. Funeral services are under the direction of Smith Funeral Home, Anadarko, Oklahoma. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.smithfuneralservices.com

Tribute Wall

SD

“ I was blessed to spend time with Justin and his beautiful family in Reno, Nevada. I will always remember his beautiful smile and testimony of our Savior Jesus Christ. He had a great singing voice and lifted many with his songs. The time I spent with Justin, Whitney, baby Camille (Camilly) and Justin's parents was pure joy. My prayers are with this amazing family. I will forever be touched by their faith and love. Justin, you have a special place in Heaven because of the way you lived your life here on earth. What an example you set for all that knew you.

Sharon Dixon, therapist at Reno Integrative Medical Center

Sharon Dixon - July 01, 2019 at 12:00 AM

FG

“ Right now, when your loss is so fresh, it may be difficult for you to imagine that this pain will ever go away. But in time the blessing of God's unfailing love will soften the hurt you're feeling and bring your heart the peace, comfort and hope that it needs to heal. How? Revelation 21:4 tells us that soon everything that causes us pain, including death, will be gone forever. We also have the hope of our loved ones being resurrected here on earth, as Acts 24:15 tells us. I do hope you find comfort in this.

Though I did not know your loved one, he sound like a beautiful person. I am touched by your loss. Please accept my sincere condolences. JW.org.

Fred G - March 22, 2019 at 12:00 AM

TE

“ Whitney, I just wanted you to know I was thinking about you and your family. I just read this beautiful tribute to your husband in the paper. I didn't know him, and I have not seen you in several years, but my heart just broke for you. He must have been a wonderful man. I pray for peace for you because I know how hard it is to lose the best part of you. Continue to turn to God and your family for support and remember you are loved.

Therisa Erman - March 14, 2019 at 12:00 AM

TL

“ To be in the arms of Jesus is where we all pray to be.. He gets to be there now. I love you all and will always pray for his children! Xoxo tricia!

Tricia, Brian and Maryrose Langley - March 13, 2019 at 12:00 AM

SM

“ A Son, Father and husband to have been very proud of, my heart just breaks for his 3 kids & his wife. Justin had such precious memories he left to everyone, in God's hands now. Rest In Peace sweet young man. Prayers for this family.

Sheri Miller - March 12, 2019 at 12:00 AM

AE

“ Prayers for the family of justin Boyer and I will be praying every day for the family

Austin English - March 11, 2019 at 12:00 AM

JD

“ Justin was loved by many, liked I think I could easily say by everyone that ever met him. He was a Godly man from head to toe. A great example to all of us. Filled truly with the fruits of the spirit with love, joy, peace, long suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control. I think maybe you could add full of fun and caring to his list. He was a great husband, father, son, brother, Grandson, brother, brother in law, uncle, nephew, friend and most of all witness for his Lord and Savior until his last breath, when he entered the gates of Heaven to receive his complete healing. We love you Justin, we will miss you but most of all we will always remember you as a man of God. Love and prayers to your family. JoVaughn and David Davis

JoVaughn Davis - March 11, 2019 at 12:00 AM