

Kimberly "Kim" Ann Heddlesten

July 17, 1979 - October 30, 2024

Kimberly "Kim" Ann Heddlesten was born to Gary Dean Heddlesten and Sandra Jean (Vance) Heddlesten on July 17, 1979, in Chickasha, Oklahoma. She passed from this life too soon on October 30, 2024, at the age of 45.

Kim was a Christian. She loved gospel music and she was always praising the Lord. Kim spent her younger years in Anadarko, Oklahoma. She then moved to Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, where she lived the last 20 years of her life.

Kim was a woman of many interests and talents. She loved painting and watching TV and movies with her family. Family was extremely important to Kim. She dedicated her life to caring for her children and grandchildren. Kim also found great joy in spending time outdoors with the love of her life, Harley. They spent many hours hunting, fishing, mushroom hunting, and just enjoying nature. Kim was most at peace when she was outside in the beautiful world.

Kim is survived by her mother, Sandra Heddlesten of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma; her grandmother, Betty Vance of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma; her companion, Harley Houston, of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma; her son, Kameron Hughes and wife LaNisha of Carnegie, Oklahoma; her daughters, Kaitlyn Hughes of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, and Kassidy Hughes and fiancé Adam Opitz of Weatherford, Oklahoma; her brothers, Dewayne McGhghy and wife Candy of Anadarko, Oklahoma, David McGhghy and wife Yolanda of Elgin, Oklahoma, and Quinton Heddlesten and wife Cynthia of Kansas City, Kansas; her sister, Kelli Heddlesten and companion Erin Doyeto of Chickasha, Oklahoma; her grandchildren, Kennedy, Kyla, Kyras, and Kayson, and many other beloved relatives and friends.

Kim is preceded in death by her father, Gary Heddlesten, and her brother Jon Heddlesten.

Services are under the direction of Fort Cobb Funeral Home in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma.

Tribute Wall

JE

“ I just can not believe you are gone. I read your obituary every single day and every single day it's still a shock. I just don't understand sister. I loved you yesterday and I love you today and I will love you for the rest of my life. Please show me signs you are ok. Forever in my heart you will be Kim. The day you passed so so many hearts were broken 🥹🥹💔💔🥹🥹

Jenny - November 10, 2024 at 04:41 AM

BR

“ Love and Prayers!!!

Bill Reedy - November 05, 2024 at 01:33 AM