

Lavidia Geraldine Chandler

March 22, 1945 - December 16, 2018

Lavidia Geraldine Chandler was born March 22, 1945 in Denver, Colorado to Jessie Sisk and Gerald Turner. She passed this life on December 16, 2018 in Anadarko, Oklahoma at the age of 73. Lavidia was raised in Pueblo, Colorado. She enjoyed making ceramics, painting beautiful pictures and she also loved to dance. She was a fun, outgoing person and enjoyed being around people. She had a special bond with her sister, Judy and her aunt, Sheila. Lavidia loved to cook and she was very good at it. She married Ron Warren in 1965 and together they had a daughter, Rhonda. She spent most of her life as a waitress and everyone loved her. She later married Jay Ketterman Jr. and they lived in Nevada for awhile before moving to Oklahoma to be closer to family due to her declining health. The last 10 years of her life were spent in Anadarko. Left to cherish her memories is her daughter, Rhonda Calk of Lawton; sister, Judy Ortiz and husband, Jim of Guymon; sister-in-law, Karen Howard of Pueblo, Colorado; granddaughter, Melissa Vance and husband, Jeremy of Anadarko; 3 great grandchildren: Cheyenne, Lyndon and Matthias Vance of Anadarko along with other relatives and friends. Lavidia is preceded in death by her mother, Jessie Howard; father, Gerald Turner; Father, Grady Howard; daughter, Sonja Witt and brother, Dennis Howard. A memorial service will be held Wednesday, December 19, 2018 at 10:00 A.M. at the Smith Funeral Home Chapel in Anadarko with Rev. Lynn Bellamy officiating. Services are under the direction of Smith Funeral Home, Anadarko, Oklahoma. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.smithfuneralservice
