“ So many memories So many crazy conversations and heart to hearts There was no one in the world like you. Thank you for always being there for me when I needed a friend. I never knew when I would see you but I knew you would show up to check on me. I've had very few constants in my life and I was lucky enough to have you as one of them. Always trading clothes and make up - never knew what you would have but you had something for me and you knew me so well it was always something I had mentioned in passing and you would dig around in that big ol purse and pull out the craziest stuff...lol.....I use to say you would have made out on 'Let's Make a Deal'...😂 (Who in here can show me a leprechaun whisker? Auntie:. Here! Here!) I'm gonna miss you showing up all dolled up with your outfits and hoss shoes - we would tease around with you and say your shoes were hoss because if you took them off we would see your hooves. Then you would say you were gonna come back as the deer woman and we would see you hopping around at the pow wow. That humor. It got me all the time. I miss you. I will keep you alive and well in my heart forever.

“ Lesa was more than just "My ex's mom", when her son left my life, she was there and she never left. She was a second mom to me. She welcomed me to her family, would always refer to me as one of her kids. We worked together, we had lived together, and she was always there for me in the hard times and good. She was so strong and caring. I love her so much and will never forget everything she did for me. Im gunna miss you, Momma bear. Fly high.
