“ Mom I wish I could have called you on Mother's Day. For all the things I wish I had said and can't. I hope you knew how much I loved you. Your cookies will live on and who knew Hallmark ornaments were so valuable. I will miss our trips to downtown McKinney and the chocolate cake we loved to eat and the good conversations we had. You may be gone but you are still with me and will be until I see you again on the other side:)

“ Q: How did you meet Linda?

A: I think i have known Linda since we were in grade school. Linda was one of the sweetest girls in our graduating class of Anadarko High School 1964. She was a pleasure to be around. Linda attended a lot of our class reunions every five years! I talked to her in June, but, she did not say one word about being ill. I am so sorry, I will not be able to attend her memorial service, but, i will certainly always cherish the memory of our friendship. Please know she was a very important part of AHS 1964 and i am sure, i am speaking for all, when i say, "Linda, you will be missed! RIP "!

“ Q: What will you never forget about Linda?

A: I will never forget all our holiday celebrations as a family and mom's famous sugar cookies. No one could bake those cookies like mom! The plate was usually cleared in minutes. This is a picture from our last Christmas together.

“ Q: What was one of your favorite qualities of Linda?

A: Mom was a dreamer. We had a couple of road-trips together and her going with something that called her is definitely something that lives on in me. Who else pulls out a map, points to Dallas and says we're moving there. She did in 1986. The rest is history.

“ It is hard to believe that Linda and I have been friends for over 30 years. Linda, the woman that taught me how to play "Go Fish" has moved on to be with God. Her kind words and warm smile truly made my life better.
