

Lizzie Mae White

September 21, 1913 - December 20, 2013

Lizzie Mae (Chastain) White, 100 years old, of Carnegie, Oklahoma was called home by the Lord on Friday, December 20, 2013 at the Carnegie Nursing Home. She was born September 21, 1913 to John and Lizzie (Godwin) Chastain in Lark, Oklahoma. She was united in marriage to Lloyd White on February 11, 1939 in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, to this union was born two sons Donald Lee (Chicken) White and Doyle Edward (Skipper) White. She was a loving wife and mother. She cooked at the Fort Cobb Cafe and the Fort Cobb Schools for several years. She enjoyed all the visits of her nieces, Phyllis, Charlette and Bettie and her many friends. She loved her care givers at the Carnegie Nursing Home. She also enjoyed doing crafts and sewing. She is survived by nieces, Phyllis Courtney and husband, Glen of Fort Cobb, Charlette Williams and husband, Richard of Anadarko, Bettie Galindo of Anadarko, Sue (Blankenship) Davis of OK, Kay (Blankenship) Roseborough of Kellyville, OK, Patti(White) Shelite and husband, Leonard of Fort Cobb, nephews, Ronald and Ralph Blankenship both of Kellyville, Ok, Larry White and wife, Mary Ann of Frisco, TX, Terry White and wife, Nona of Fort Cobb and her family at the Carnegie Nursing Home. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Lloyd White, two sons, Donald Lee White and Doyle Edward White, daughter in law, Oletha White, brothers, Clyde and Claude Chastain, sisters, Fairy Chastain, Johnnie Blankenship and Goldie Sink, niece, Jan Feldman and a nephew, Raymond Blankenship. A Celebration of Life will be at 2:00 P. M., Monday, December 23, 2013 at Fort

Cobb Funeral Home Chapel. Officiating, will be Brian King, burial will follow in the Oak Grove Cemetery, Fort Cobb, OK under the direction of Fort Cobb Cemetery, Fort Cobb, Oklahoma

Tribute Wall

“ Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. ”

Jamie Bish - August 29, 2016 at 12:00 AM