

Lois Reyes

August 26, 1931 - May 12, 2018

Lois was born August 26th, 1931 in Anadarko, Oklahoma Esiquio and Lucille Medrano. She grew up in Anadarko. She retired after 22 years working for the Department of Human Services and also served as a translator for the State of Oklahoma. She raised four children of her own and adopted two of her granddaughters. An excellent seamstress, she enjoyed sewing, making her sons' shirts and her daughters' dresses. She began at a young age, making clothes and helping keep the home while her younger siblings grew up. Also an outstanding cook, her tortillas and other homemade foods delighted all who sat at her table. Later in life, Lois enjoyed making quilts for her family as a hobby. As she raised her family, she made homes in Colorado, Oklahoma, Maryland, and at last returning to Oklahoma. In Oklahoma, she lived in Carnegie, Gracemont, Anadarko, and Weatherford. All who knew her loved her quick wit and feisty attitude. Her sisters will always appreciate her graciousness, acceptance, and the great value she placed on family. Lois was baptized a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in July, 2015. She enjoyed the fellowship of the congregation in Clinton, Oklahoma and attended there as often as her health would permit. Lois is survived by her sons Roger L. Guerra of Oklahoma City and Richard L. Guerra of Oklahoma City, and daughters Karen S. Melton of Lexington, Lois Monica Quezada of Ohio, and Angela R. Reyes of Lahoma. She also leaves behind 24 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her son Robert L Guerra. She is also preceded in death by her brothers Joe and
