Pastor Ted Mercer of Grace Church, officiating. Marcenella "Marcy" Jordan was born in a canvas tent on Blackjack Hill, west of Anadarko, on January 16, 1926. She was born to Lela Jordan on a cold and wintery day. She was premature and so tiny that her Granny placed her in a shoe box, thus beginning her legacy of being a strong woman. She raised 5 boys who she loved unconditionally and her life revolved around her family. She was a successful business woman, owning the Frosty Mug and the Confectionary. Then later in life, she owned Lacer's Indian Store with her husband, Lewis Lacer Jr. Most know her for the many years she worked at Rexall Drug Store which later became Melton's Drug. Marcenella married the love of her life, Lewis Lacer Jr in 1959. They spent every day together until his passing on January 21, 2000, exactly 21 years to the day that she passed. They were well known in the community and loved by everyone they met. She had a special relationship with her cousins, Norma Jean Grizzle, Annie Ruth Weeks, Alta Fox, George Moore and their families all of Georgia. She had many hobbies throughout the years that included making dolls, clothes, beadwork, crocheting blankets to collecting beam and Avon bottles. She attended Grace Church and she shared her love for the Lord with everyone she met. Marcy never met a stranger and loved all of her family, especially her Grandchildren. She taught us to love everyone, love them true and love them equally.
