

Margaret Pebeahsy

February 25, 1954 - December 15, 2014

Margaret "Margo" Pebeahsy was born on February 25, 1954 to Darlene Grace Caley and Charles W. Pebeahsy Sr, leaving her beloved family on Monday, December 15, 2014 in Lawton, Oklahoma. Margo was raised and lived most of her life in the Anadarko area. She attended Anadarko Public School from elementary until she became a student at Fort Sill Indian School in Lawton, Oklahoma. While attending F.I.S., she was a cheerleader, basketball player and class treasurer, graduating with honors. She also attended Haskell Indian College in Lawrence, Kansas briefly. She worked at various jobs during her lifetime-including housekeeping at the Indian health Service in Anadarko, where she made many friends and acquaintances. She participated in the Wichita-Pawnee cultural camp visitations for many years, She enjoyed being outdoors in the summer, playing dominoes, cards, sparkle, star gazing at night and watching grandchildren play. Her passion was being able to care/revive all types of green house plants, doing crochet and needlepoint and watching OU football and Thunder basketball.
