“ Q: What will you miss most about Margaret?

A: We met Margaret at the Eatery in Anadarko. She was lovely and energetic to be around. I admired the relationship she had with our little boy Sawyer, he thought a lot of Margaret. He would always run up and give her a warm Hug. Every Christmas Margaret would give Saw $100 to go and spend. It wasn't the money I admired, but that she had such a kind and loving spirit to do that. We enjoyed sitting with her and David and eat lunch while we talked about whatever was new. We will greatly miss her warm and lively spirit.
