“ So very happy that we got to come to Oklahoma last summer and spend time with you & Bobby, even at 115 degrees. You fought with all your might and now it's time to rest. I can picture you reuniting with all our loved ones who have gone before us. I promise to keep in touch with my new brother Darrell. :-) Elsie, you will be missed. We love you.

“ Elsie you were a fighter. Now you are at rest. Darrell has been a blessing through out your illness. He has been by your side day and night. Know that he will be rewarded. You told me I could adopt him and you would leave him to me in your will. So now Darrell you can be my little boy. If you ever need anything let me know. You are in my prayers. Elsie you will me missed.
