

MS. Jeannie Dale Whiteshield

May 30, 1949 - March 6, 2013

Jeannie Dale Whiteshield, 63, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, passed from this life on Wednesday, March 6, 2013 in Oklahoma City. Jeannie was born May 30, 1949 in Lawton, Oklahoma to Russell Whiteshield and LaVera Reeder . She attended and graduated from Anadarko High School and studied for 2 years at Cameron College in Lawton, Oklahoma. She resided in Oklahoma City and worked as a grocery cashier for many years and liked visiting with her customers. Jeannie Dale enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, listening to motown music, flea market shopping and watching movies and CSI TV shows. She was a member of the Cheyenne-Arapaho Tribes of Oklahoma. Survivors include her companion, John Tillman; 2 daughters: Ray Wilt and Johnna Walsh; grandchildren: Chase Wilt, Macy Walsh, Max Walsh and Dylan Walsh; 4 brothers: James, Roger and Jimmy Reeder and Jimmy Stephenson; 3 sisters: Carol Yater, Benetta Reeder and Lucinda Domebo. Jeannie is preceded in death by her grandparents, Frank and Eunice Swift; mother, LaVera Reeder, father, Russell Whiteshield; brothers: Virgil Swift, Charles "Buster" Reeder and sister, Kathleen Johnson Prayer service will be held at 7:00 P.M., Sunday at Smith Funeral Home Chapel in Anadarko, Oklahoma and funeral service will be at 10:00 A.M. on Monday, March 11, 2013 at the Smith Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Neil Sanders, officiating and Rev. Jimmy Reeder, assisting. Burial will follow in the Rock Springs Wichita Tribal Cemetery, Anadarko. Funeral services under the direction of Smith Funeral Home, Anadarko, Oklahoma. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.smithfuneralservices.com .

Tribute Wall

SR

“ I miss Jeannie. When buying groceries at Crest, I always waited in line so I could talk with her -- her sense of humor was delightful, her common sense was remarkable. It's not the same without her. Best wishes.

sam reynolds - August 29, 2016 at 12:00 AM

DB

“ Attended Anadarko HS with Jeannie. She was always a very nice person to be in class with. I wish her well on her journey, RIP.

Donna Bowman - August 29, 2016 at 12:00 AM