“ Please accept my condolences, sympathy, and empathy in the loss of Rose Mary. I have been her nurse in the past. She will be missed by many. She had many stories to tell of family and history and always enjoyed seeing her and Rudy both, as I was nurse to them both. They told me stories of my family as well, The older Keechi's, and grandma and grandpa Keechi and our home place in Binger. Prayers and blessings to you all in this time of loss. Love to the family.

“ I am sorry to hear of Rosemary's passing...she was an important person in my life...my Mom, LaDonna Williams Kopfinger was her first cousin...my life has been enriched by her...i remember love, laughter and craziness from my summers in Oklahoma...my Mom and my family remember fond times at her house...she had a zest for life and a craziness for family...we laughed so much, we cried a lot during times of sadness and we enjoyed our times together...she will be missed...by me and my siblings....family is family...love is love...at last they are all reunited forever...my heart is heavy but I know she is rejoicing in heaven....I love you, Rosemary and I will miss you
