“ Reading the Daily Oklahoman this morning I was saddened to see that my Aunt Faye had passed. Happy memories soon came to mind when I began to think of the times when I got to go to her and Uncle Lloyd's house and play with my cousins Mary Ellen, Bobby Earl, and James. I still wonder what she thought when Bobby Earl, James, and I brought that opossum to the house for her to cook! (This happened on the farm at Binger). I do remember her telling us to take that thing to the neighbors house across the road because she wasn't cooking it! What a patient soul she had!
My Mother, Orvetta, was Uncle Lloyds sister. My brother Mike and I are planning to be down for the Memorial.
Blessings to the family.
