

Phyllis Rae Courtney

June 8, 1944 - April 30, 2025

Phyllis Rae Courtney, 80, of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on April 30, 2025, at Mercy Hospital in Oklahoma City, surrounded by her loving family.

Phyllis was born on June 8, 1944, in Anadarko, Oklahoma, to Goldie and Ray Sink. She graduated from Anadarko High School in 1962 and later attended the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma (USAO). On January 21, 1972, she married the love of her life, Glen Courtney. Together, they built a life rooted in family, faith, and hard work. Phyllis worked at Anthony's and Melton's before helping operate Courtney Tractor Repair, a business she and Glen proudly owned.

She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother who cherished spending time with her family. Phyllis loved visiting with friends and family, chasing after her grandkids, working puzzles, and playing cards. Her warmth, wit, and welcoming spirit touched all who knew her.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her parents; her beloved husband, Glen Courtney; her son, Mark Courtney; and her sister, Betty Galindo.

She is survived by her children, Wendy and Landon Clift of Fort Cobb, and Clint and Jamie Courtney of Fort Cobb;

Grandchildren, Kyanna and Rhett Tripp of Blair, Ty and Tailor Courtney of Fort Cobb, Cody and Shelby Courtney of Fort Cobb, and Makyah Clift and Austin Elam of Fort Cobb;

Great-grandchildren, Radley Tripp of Blair, Haelynn Courtney and Callyn Courtney of Fort Cobb. Phyllis is also survived by her sister, Charlette Williams of Fort Cobb; sister-in-law, Jo Nell Courtney of Fort Cobb; and numerous nieces, nephews, and dear friends.

Phyllis's legacy of love and kindness will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her.
