“ There aren't any words that we can say that will take the ache from your heart. It will slowly get better. Knowing her faith and her witness through this long battle served His purpose, we pray for you. May you hold the "good" memories close. She would appreciate your laughter and joy even in your loss.

“ Rickey: haven't kept in touch with you or anyone from Southwestern but saw your wife's obituary in the paper and wanted to extend my sympathies. You shared many good years together and I know that this will be a difficult time for you but you are blessed with faith and family that will help you through the process. God be with you.
