

Virginia Grace Collins

November 24, 1966 - November 13, 2018

Virginia Grace (Ginger) Collins, 51, of Oklahoma City was called home by the Lord on Tuesday, November 13, 2018 in Oklahoma City. She was born November 24, 1966 in Lawton, Oklahoma to Harvey M. and Vermona J. (Shemamy) Collins. She attended school in Gracemont and then received her GED through the Caddo-Kiowa Technology Center in Fort Cobb. Ginger was employed at Shepard Research for 9 years and also the Kiowa Tribal Housing Dept. Ginger was a huge fan of the Green Bay Packers football team, Oklahoma City Thunder basketball team as well as the OU football team. She loved her football! Ginger was a proud member of the Wichita and Affiliated tribes as well as the Caddo tribe. Left to cherish her memory are her parents, Harvey and Vermona Collins; sons: Daniel Jacob Williams and Reylan Shemamy of Gracemont, Oklahoma; her companion Victor Puller, brother, Ronnie Williams of Oklahoma City; sisters: Catherine Kionue of Anadarko, Samaria Hastings of Colcord, Oklahoma and Roberta Johnson of Gracemont, Oklahoma, other relatives and many friends. Ginger is preceded in death by 1 brother: Algernon Kionute: 2 nephews: Roderick Bert and Joseph Bert. Prayer service will be at 7:00 P.M., Friday, November 16, 2018 and funeral service will be at 11:00 A.M., Saturday, November 17, 2018. Both services will be held at Smith Funeral Home Chapel in Anadarko. Rev. Marvin Delaware will officiate. Burial will follow in the Rock Spring Cemetery, north of Anadarko. Services are under the direction of Smith Funeral Home, Anadarko, Oklahoma. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.smithfuneralservice

“ My favorite memory...the night we watched the planets align. We talked all night about our planned futures and how we would go to college. We talked about her moving away and how we wouldn't lose touch. Rest in paradise my dear friend in peace and pain free until we meet again. I was blessed to call you my sister.
