“ You are in our prayers. Wildena and my grandmother (Frances Wise) were cousins. I will always remember her smile and that she was sincerely happy to see me every time we would run into each other.

“ Sorry to hear Wildena passed away. She was a fine lady. She would come visit with me and my family in California in the early 1960's and I last spoke with her a few months ago. 11208 Shallow Water Road, Austin, Texas 78717, 512-249-1300.

“ So sorry to learn of your loss, I was a classmate of her and her brother at Ft. Sill Indian School back in the day, and remained friends right up until the last, she will be missed by many. I collect quotes and one of them says "Don't cry because it's over, be thankful that it happened" so we should TRY to be happy and be thankful for the time that we got to spend with her. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. May God be with you.

“ I was so very sorry to learn of Wildena's passing. We grew up being around her and she always felt like family. She was always there at First Caddo Baptist when we (my sister and I) attended with our Grandparents, Hubert and Corinne Halfmoon. Growing up, I used to play with her son Damon - he was one of the most genuinely kind and sweet persons I have ever met. Wildena was always so kind and loving to us. I can still hear her laugh and hear her singing those Caddo hymns. She was so dedicated to Caddo people and culture and she had a good heart. I pray that she has found peace and I pray that those she left behind (especially her son) are blessed during this difficult time. I am sorry we were unable to attend the Prayer Service but our thoughts have been with the family since we learned of her passing. I know her and my Grandparents and many other Caddos are singing together in Heaven now. God Bless. XO, Stacey Halfmoon

“ I met Wildena several years back as I attended Fort Sill Indian School like she did. Though we attended in different years, through the annual reunions that includes all who attended FSIS, I got to know this very kind, friendly, lovely lady. I know she is with Jesus and happy. John 3:16
